MILITARY CARNIVAL.

Committee Work for the Fair to Be Held at Tomlinson Hall May 9 to 13, Inclusive.

The general committee of the military fair and carnival, at their last night's meeting, held at the office of the president, Capt. Charles J. Many, received the reports of the various sub-committees. They are highly elated at the encouragement received and the assurance that the fair will be a success. The committee on transportation reported that they would be able to secure reduced rates on all railroads entering the city. On the closing night will be given a grand military ball, and no efforts will be spared to make it the most successful of the season.

The committee on donations and booths have been appointed, and members assigned to districts, as follows:
No. 1, Washington Street, Capt. M. V. Scott, H. W. Schreier, John Gebhardt and H. Davidson.
No. 2, Maryland, Market, George and Ohio Streets, Charles J. Schmidt, E. O. Winterwood and A. W. Williams.
No. 3, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Meridian and Illinois Streets—Lieut. Will J. Beach, Lon Chapman and Serat. Chas. Russ.
No. 4, All East of Delaware and North of Ohio Street—K. H. Lancaster, Val Farbach and A. W. Schreier.
No. 5, all west of Illinois and north of Ohio Street—George Siskford, James Gordon and William Roberts.
No. 6, all east of Delaware and south of Georgia Street—L. G. Adams, Johnston Holmes and J. S. Wright.
No. 7, all west of Illinois and south of Georgia Street—F. J. Loftis, Lieutenant Carney and Will McBride.
No. 8, Court-house, State-house, etc.—Dr. E. E. Carey, Jacob Emmerich and F. A. Blanchard.

The contribution books are now in the hands of these committees, and it is requested that the citizens be as liberal as possible. Contributors will be careful to see that books are signed by Charles J. Many, president, and D. F. Cail, secretary.

CARRIED A DYNAMITE BOMB.

Suspicious Character Gathered by Detectives—A Safe-Blower or Crank.

Joseph A. Schadler was arrested yesterday afternoon by detectives Kinney and Richards to answer a charge of loitering. He arrived in the city over two weeks ago, and frequented the wholesale district on South Meridian street. The detectives shadowed him, and found that he was visited at his room by suspicious-looking men. When searched, after his arrest, a half-filled cartridge and a dynamite bomb about the size of a candle, with a fuse attached, were found in his possession. Chief Spahn believes the prisoner is one of a gang of safe-breakers. The latter says he used to be in business in East St. Louis until his employees stole $25,000 from him. His appearance and dress, in connection with this assertion, would indicate that he is somewhat deranged. He gave his age as forty years. The officers will try to learn more of his story to-day.

Episcopal Churches.

Good Friday will be devoutly observed in the several Episcopal churches of the city, with services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., to which all are cordially invited. At Grace Cathedral, Christ Church and Holy Innocents, the Savior's agony upon the cross will be commemorated from 12 M. to 3 P. M., with special services and meditations on the seven sayings of our blessed Lord upon the cross. The services will be especially impressive and helpful, and a fitting preparation for holy communion at Easter. All Christian people will find them edifying. Bishop Knickerbocker is expected to officiate at St. Paul's Church at 10:30 A. M.

GAVE HIM A VERY "SOFT" JOB

Board of Works Oversteps Its Authority and Creates a Useless Office.

Hustling Ward Politician Chosen to Fill the Place—Street-Sweepers Punched Up—Miscellaneous City Affairs.

Yesterday morning the Board of Public Works, after its regular session, adjourned to the executive chamber and appointed ex-Deputy City Clerk Bushong inspector of street sprinkling and sweeping at a monthly salary of $100. He will have to furnish a buggy and horse at his own expense if he feels the need of one. Bushong was not among the list of applicants given out yesterday morning.

What use upon earth there can be for an inspector of sprinkling is one of those things past finding out. The presumption is that the sprinkling contracts were let to responsible bidders, who will either see to it that their employees do the work or stand liable to the city on their bonds. It is not like the business of paving, where poor work might pass for a long time without discovery; if the sprinkling is not properly done residents along the streets will complain very quickly.

The charter gives the Board of Public Works no authority for the appointment of such an officer until the Council creates the office, and this the Council has not done. However, there has been frequent occasion heretofore to remark that the Sullivan administration never permits a little thing like the charter to stand in its way. The appointment of Bushong gives strong color to the theory that the office is thus illegally created for the sole purpose of giving a political fine-worker in ward primaries and local conventions an easy job, where he will be paid $100 per month for doing nothing.

Among those who were applicants for the position of sprinkling inspector are R. F. Rogers, M. F. Rudolph, Samuel G. Green, Morris Solomon, August Warner, John W. Kise and Robert Duncan.

Poor Street-Sweeping.

The Board of Public Works jumped onto the Indianapolis Sweeping Company in the following letter:

The board has to complain of the manner in which you are carrying out your contracts for the sweeping of the streets. It is not being well done and cannot longer be done in this manner. The sweepers are not properly taken up, gutters not cleaned, street intersections left wholly unswept. The engineer will be instructed to make a deduction of the full cost of sweeping where imperfectly done hereafter.

The engineer was so instructed.

New Sewer to Be Put In.

Upon the petition of William Buschman and the recommendation of City Engineer Mansfield, the board ordered the papers prepared for a sewer from the New Jersey street sewer, from Delaware street east on St. Joseph to Alabama, thence north to St. Mary's, thence east to Central avenue. Mr. Buschman asked for a private sewer, but the board is following out a system.

Paving Contracts.

The contract and bond of Palmer & Seibert for grading and paving with brick South street, from Delaware street to Virginia avenue, amounting to $11,500, was approved by the board. The contract and bond of the Warren-Scharf company for Pennsylvania street, from New York to St. Clair, amounting to $16,300, was also approved.

Street-Improvement Resolutions.

Resolutions were yesterday adopted for the improvement of Illinois street, from Fall creek to Twenty-sixth; Mississippi, from South street to the first alley south; Missouri street, from Kentucky to Merrill street, all by grading and graveling.

Municipal Notes.

Street Commissioner Harold was ordered to repair at once the cistern at the corner of Meridian and Palmer streets. Chief Webster recommended it.

It is said that the Democrats will adjourn the regular meeting of the Council, next Monday night, on account of the Democratic primaries, and that the meeting will be held Tuesday evening. The Lake Erie & Western Railroad Company has been granted an order temporarily restraining Henry Clay and the city from making an improvement on Tenth street, near the College-avenue barns.

H. C. Tang and Jackson Landers yesterday demonstrated against improving the street-car company's portion on Pennsylvania street, between New York and St. Clair streets. Capt. James Curtis called to petition for the pavement.

William H. Meadows, of 403 Madison avenue, asked the board yesterday to be allowed to cut the brick pavement on Coburn street in order to get a gas connection. The board will allow the work done if Mr. Kensington, the contractor, will consent.

ART EXHIBIT.

Good Attendance Yesterday—New Water-Colors Hung—Visitors Register.

There was a very good attendance at the art exhibit yesterday, but unfortunately the catalogues were not ready and the visitors were obliged to do without the assistance of name and frequently that of the artist in looking at a picture. They had the pleasure of naming some of the pictures to suit themselves, and in so doing a great deal of time was saved, for many hours are wasted in trying to find what relation the picture and name given by the artist bear to each other. Many more pictures have been hung, and by to-day all will be complete. Two rows of water-colors were placed down the center of the hall which were not seen at all by first-view visitors. Among the water-colorists are J. Owen, Xanthus Smith, R. Gruelle, C. W. Conant, A. W. Harrington, Mr. Foreyth, Alfred Fredericks and F. Randall. One of the best, if not the very best, marine view is one of F. H. Rehn's. At the horizon is a heavy lead cloud, which, a little higher, fades into twilight, and high up are the very last tints thrown by a departing sun. Each of these in turn is reflected by the water, till, at the edge of the waves, just kissing the beach, is the shadow that the shallow water makes. It is a beautiful study in color and shadows. Paul Moran's "Siesta," on the north wall, is a delicate, graceful picture. The privilege of going and studying the pictures every day for three weeks, if one cares to do so, is one of the great advantages the membership in the Art Association gives, and in addition there are minor exhibits through the year. The pictures grow on one, and each visit brings a new canvas not noticed before. One feature of the exhibit is the visitor's register, which is at the door. Among those who attended yesterday were Mrs. M. Sears Brooks and Miss Gay Brooks, of Madison; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hatcher, of Lafayette; and Miss Mary S. Armsstrong, of Kokomo.

FOR THE INDIANA BUILDING.

Liberal Donations Made by the Stone Men—Want a Lithograph.

Executive Commissioner Havens, of the world's fair commission, returned yesterday from Bedford, with a valuable donation to the Indiana building. The Onitio Limestone Association offered to furnish not only the stone, but to cut it for the towers and door-stoops of the building. The Stinesville quarrymen were first with an offer to furnish one of the carved stoops, and the Bedford members then offered the other stoop and the two towers. The donation is equivalent to $5,000 in value, and makes $75,000 worth of donations to the fair. Mr. Havens is anxious to secure a lithograph cut of the building, and says the board has announced a willingness to give the lithographer the exclusive sale of the pictures in return for the number needed by the board in the canvass for donations.

Amusements.

The Miller Opera Company will make their last appearance at the Grand tonight in "Ship Ahoy." The operetta is full of melody and catching airs, and there is much in it that is very amusing.

Manager Frank McKee, of "A Temperance Town," who is in the city, says that the comedy has been one of the greatest of Mr. Hoyt's numerous successes, and has done an enormous business since it was first produced in Buffalo, four weeks ago. George Richards, who plays the village drunkard, has made a great hit in it, and individual successes have also been scored by Eugene Canfield and others. "A Temperance Town" is a clean cut comedy in which a little pathos is deftly introduced, and it is, in many respects, Mr. Hoyt's most pretentious work.

The May Russell Big Barbecue Company will be the attraction at English's the first three nights of next week.

Building Permits.

Building permits were yesterday issued to the following persons: L. Anna Mavity, repairs, North Delaware street, $300; Mrs. Grace Long, repairs, 294 Union street, $100; Connecticut Mutual Insurance Company, repairs, 248 North East street, $300; Mrs. Herider, addition, 178 Fletcher avenue, $400; Connecticut Mutual Insurance Company, repairs, 171 West Ohio street, $200; John W. Bowius, four cottages, Detroit avenue, $1,000; J. P. Brown, repairs, 160 Clark street, $100; John A. Deery, repairs, East North street, $500; Henry Holzhausen, addition, 1065 North Tennessee street, $235; F. M. Bushman, stable, 670 North Meridian street, $300.

Lafayette Car-Works.

Judge Woods yesterday confirmed the sale of the Lafayette car-works, which took place on March 30. The purchase price was $20,500. The motion of creditors to set aside the sale on the ground that a more advantageous offer had been received was overruled.

Small Fires.

The store of Charles Stechhan, at No. 498 Madison avenue, was slightly damaged, yesterday, by fire. A defective fuse caused a damage of $50 to Ellen Shea's house, at No. 136 Bates street.

The Much-Envyed Chicago.

Is not in it this time. Chicago may be an unadorned combination of swiftness, rapidity, velocity and celerity; it may have a few honest aldermen; it may shelter a few members of the feminine gender who can squeeze their feet into a No. 7 shoe, but it is not like the American-Busch's original Budweiser, which is sold there in larger quantities than any of its home brews.
